

Nyuh Bali Manner

“A man’s manners are a mirror in which he shows his portrait.”

- Goethe

TOWN&COUNTRY

Greeting

Always Greet EVERYONE

Use Penganjali Position,

Bow Your body 15 degrees to the front

Greet with their name

“ Good Morning Ms. Jessica”

“ How are you today , Mr. Smith?”

Smile and Facial Expression

SIX BASIC EXPRESSIONS

ANGER

DISGUST

FEAR

JOY

SADNESS

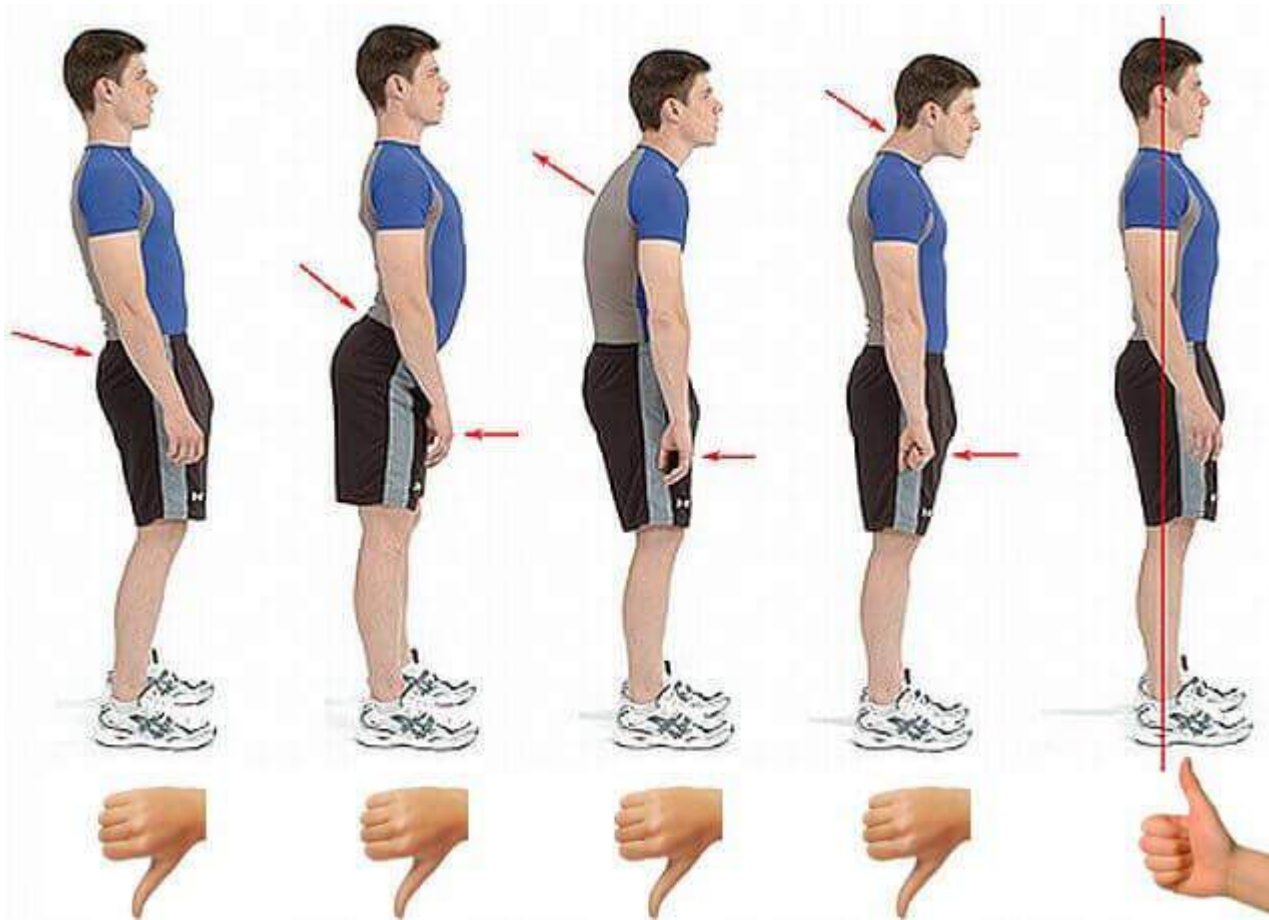

SURPRISE

- Always smile from your heart
- Maintain eye contact
- Always maintain an interested and helpful expression

Distance , Speech and Gestures

- Maintain distance at least 2 feet (around 60 cm) /1 meter during pandemic
- Speak softly and clearly
- Avoid unnecessary movement of hands and facial gestures

While Standing - Posture

- Stand Erect at ease
- Weight balanced on both feet
- Shoulder straight
- Chest out, Stomach in

While Standing - Hands

- Keep hands on the sides
- Do not keep hands in the pocket or on the hips
- Do not cross the arms cross the chest
- Do not leans against the counter, sideboard, desk ,etc
- Avoid turning back to the guest

While Standing – If the guest are not around

- Keep maintain your pose
- Do not huddle together in groups

While Sitting

- Sit Upright
- It is prohibited to place the ankle of one foot top the knee of opposite leg

While Walking

- Walk at even pace in the guest areas without sounds of footsteps
- Do not run in front of the guest
- In pathway, If the guest are approaching , get aside and give them first right of way

Speech

- Speak politely, do not use the slang words
- Never shout & scream during work

Phone

- Never shout /scream in the phone
- Do not have long conversation while the guest waiting
- Do not entertain personals call at work

Anticipation

Anticipate the guest needs without asking

- Always open the doors for the guest
- Hands him a pen
- Reach out of her/his bag , she/he is carrying
- Open and close the car door
- When rainy, bring an umbrella to the guest

Be aware of the offensive habits you have

- Biting nails
- Picking hair, nose, ear
- Yawning
- Sneezing / Yawning without covering your mouth

When on Duty

- Handle equipment without banging
- Don't talk in vernacular

When with the guest

- Do not grumbles. They are not interested in your woes
- Do not speak poorly about other guest, staff, or departments
 - Never say “I don’t know”.

Tell the guest that you will find out for him and ensure that he is provided with accurate information

- Never argue with the guest

4 Golden Ways to achieve our goal

1. Our Motto

Serve with smile & sincerity => melayani dengan senyuman & ketulusan

2. G2M (Greeting, grooming, manner)

■ Greeting

Memberi salam sesuai standard Nyuh Bali

■ Grooming

Penampilan bersih, rapi, wangi, menggunakan seragam yang sudah ditetapkan, rambut rapi, memakai name tag, dan alas kaki sesuai standard

■ Manner

Berperilaku yang sopan dan sesuai SOP

4 Golden Ways to achieve our goal

3. QWR (quick, warm, responsive)

- Cepat dalam memberikan pelayanan dan follow up sesuatu
- Memberikan layanan dan sikap yang hangat
- Cepat tanggap sebelum tamu meminta

4. 4K

- Kebersihan
- Kelengkapan
- Keterawatan
- Kehijauan

Ho Re Lo De

Honesty	=> kejujuran dalam bekerja
Responsibility	=> bertanggung jawab penuh dalam pekerjaan
Loyalty	=> loyalitas terhadap perusahaan
Dedication	=> pengorbanan tenaga, pikiran, dan waktu

Thank you

